YOUR HYPE GIRL

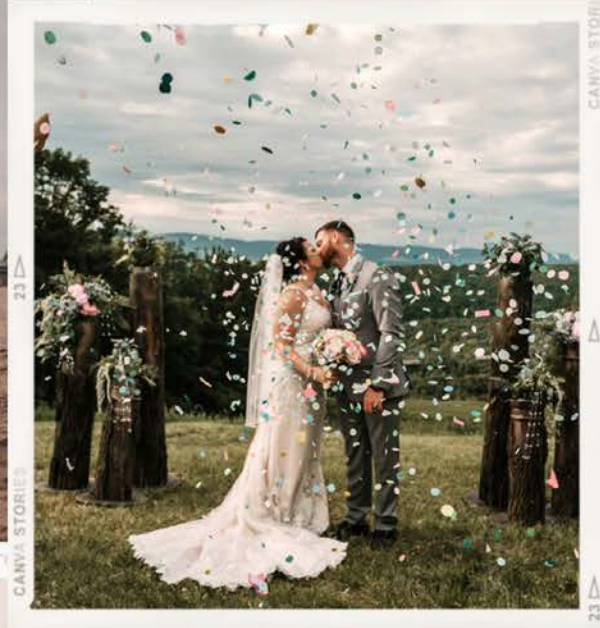

AMANDA
KOCHER

Hi! My name is Amanda and I am thrilled you're here. I started my little dream in 2013. I never imagined it would take me to where it has today. Photographing weddings in my home state of Pennsylvania (and beyond) was not the direction I thought my business would go, back when I started, but I can tell you I am so, so happy it did! I never could've imagined how much love, big moments, little moments and just plain fun I would get to photograph and experience.

I like to call myself the best 3rd wheel you'll have. From the start I am your hype girl, cheering you on, and always making sure you know just how good you look! I love to adventure with my couples, just hang out and capture you as you are. My other favorite is capturing my couples as they grow their families or have big moments long after the wedding, they call me to capture. That makes this heart very happy because I always try and treat my couples like my friends. Now let's get to the good stuff....

WEDDING DAY

If we're being completely real, the moments at weddings that I absolutely love are the ones that aren't scripted and are completely unposed. In those moments you see people get nervous, laugh, cry, get excited and display so many other emotions that make the day so memorable - those little moments also make for amazing photos, so naturally they are some of my favorite.

Feeling the mood change in the time just before the partners see each other for the first time. Feeling the good vibes coming off of the guests dancing. Seeing how people react to the vows, speeches, dances, the way the smiles and giggles remind everyone that these two people aren't two anymore but one. It's really damn sweet and I believe it fuels me.

Look before I started my business, I was a big people watcher. Little did I know, that learning and taking note of people based on how they speak, move, engage with others, and those skills are what allow me to document the day in a real and honest way. The way that I photograph is very intimate, personal and on the big day pretty quiet and capture what I see.

I know that every single client is different and in turn so is their wedding day. I love getting to know my client's personalities and working towards bringing them out in the images that I create. Just like magic. To me, wedding and couple photography is about making images that mean something to you; it's so much more than just a pretty picture.

SECOND SHOOTER

There are so many benefits that come along with hiring a second photographer. One of the main benefits is that you get a wider variety of images, and that creates better coverage for your day.

Having a second photographer allows me to be more creative. Having someone with me to photograph the "safe shots" allows me to move more freely and seek out images that I wouldn't normally be able to capture. Benefits like these can be especially useful at larger weddings, or with a larger bridal party.

I can only be in one place at a time and do so much. You know, the downside to being human. With two photographers we can double the view and the amount that we are able to do. It's like cloning and upgrading what you get.

I have a list of awesome photographers who have been hand picked to compliment my style to make sure you are getting the best of the best.

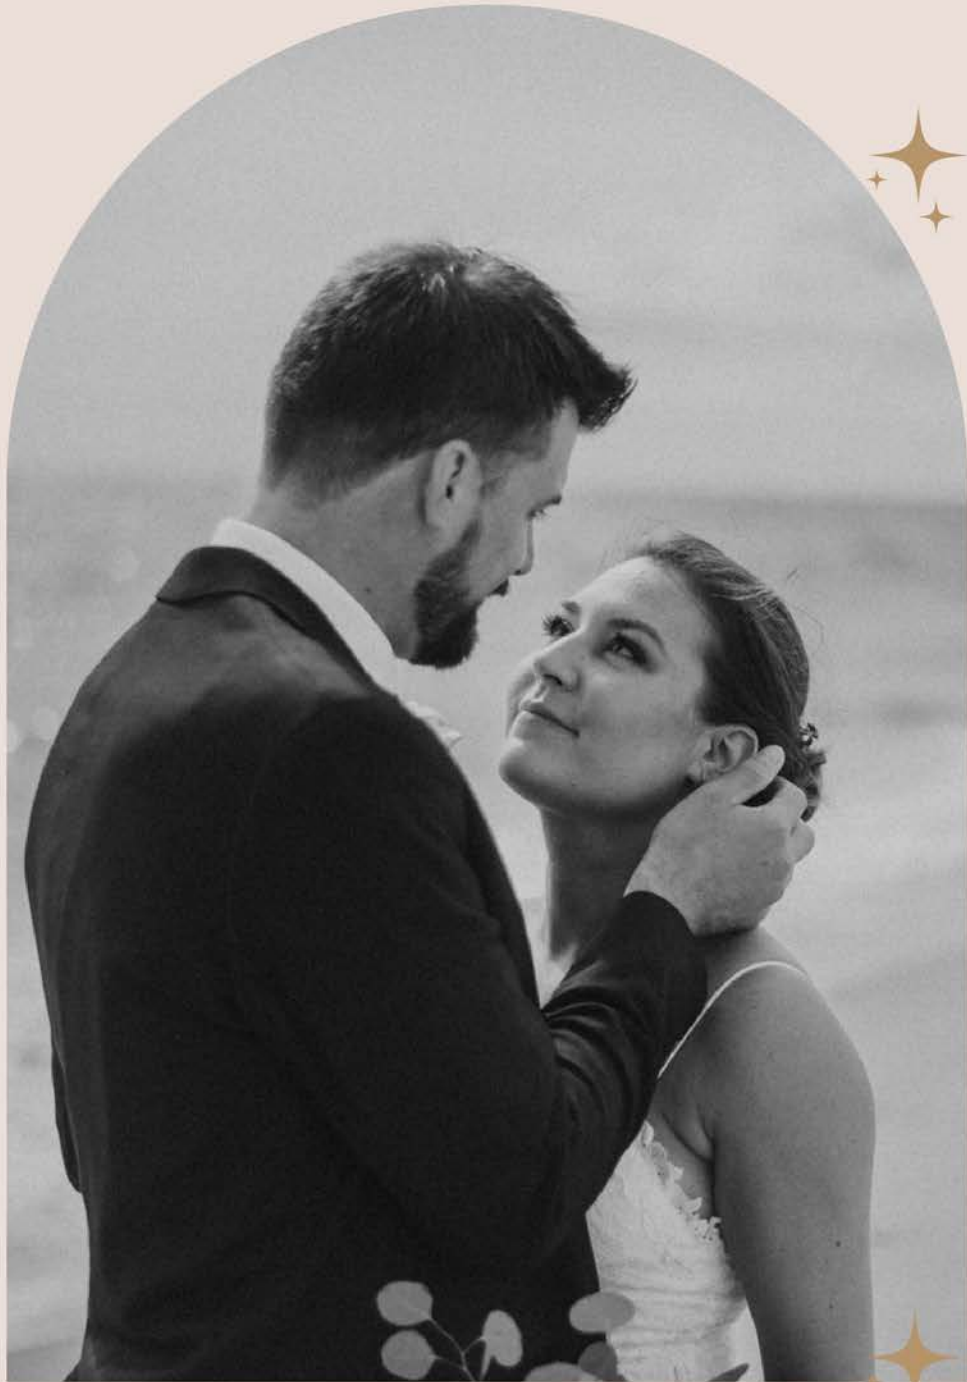

SWEET WORDS | REVIEW

"Amanda is so talented and wonderful to work with! My husband and I are from New York and were planning a wedding in Scranton, Pennsylvania and our venue recommended a few photographers. We first saw Amanda Kocher Photography and we fell in love with her work. When we spoke to Amanda, she was very professional, helpful, very accomodating, flexible and responded to any of our questions and concerns. She did our engagement and wedding photos and they all turned out stunning! We got so many compliments on how our photos came out. She is such a sweetheart and hanging out with her felt so natural and felt just like hanging out with a friend. She captured our love for each other beautifully in her photos. Thank you so much again Amanda for being a part of our best day ever. If your thinking of a photographer to capture your special day, better call Amanda Kocher Photography. Totally recommend!! -Kassandra Mendez

Amanda did our engagement and wedding photos. She made us feel so comfortable and my husband hates photos lol. They turned out beautiful. She captured everything I wanted on our wedding day a a ton of stuff I missed at the time. I'm so grateful to have these photos. -Allie Passarella

We booked Amanda for an engagement shoot/wedding and had the engagement shoot recently. I am the kind of person who is super picky about what I look like in pictures and I don't know how to pose at all. Amanda made my fiancé and I look incredible!! She was super clear with her instructions on how to pose for each shot and and her easygoing attitude encouraged us to relax. The photos ended up looking absolutely incredible!!! It was impossible to pick a favorite because there were so many beautiful shots. I'm super confident that we made the right decision to book Amanda for our wedding day!!! -Angela Evans

COUPLES SESSIONS

A couples session is a great way for us to get to know each other a bit more and get some amazing photos before the wedding. The great thing about couples, or engagement, photos is that we can be as creative as we want, we can go someplace special to you or your relationship, we can even style it like something from a pinterest post, and there is no pressure at all. We get to craft the aesthetic down to the tiniest detail.

A quiet trail in the middle of the woods, a downtown vibe, a quiet morning by a lake? Dream it and we can do it.

Plus, we will definitely have a damn good time!

WEDDING ALBUMS

Every album that is delivered to a client is designed the best way, by a person who knows how to tell the story in a way to make the memories flow right back. It doesn't seem like a big deal when I say that right now, but when you get the chance to pass the album to a family member who didn't get to make it, a kid or grandkid who wasn't there, and you can see the emotion that you felt written all over their face, it will really make sense then.

Because of how important I believe printed artwork, and albums are, I spend a lot of time placing every photo perfectly to retell the story.

I've opted for the albums to come standard as a 10 x 10 inch square. The album covers come in different styles and lots of different colors. The paper is unreal and the seamless binding means that none of the images are lost down the middle of the book. They are some of the most beautiful, heartwarming things I have seen.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: Do you have travel fees? | A: Short answer is yes. Travel is included in wedding packages up to 50 miles from my studio location in Dallas, PA. Most places in NEPA fall under or just at what's covered. If you are over 50 miles, the travel fee will vary depending on distance from me, but I am always upfront about any travel cost!

Q: Can I print my photos? | A: I would love to print your photos for you, but you do have the flexibility of printing your own.

Q: What is the turn around time like? | A: I would tell you that the turn around time is somewhere in the realm of 8-10 weeks but that is a joke. When I start editing, I can not stop. So I turn the music up as loud as it will go, tune the world out and get to work. Turn around time for weddings is 6-8 weeks max, while couples sessions are 2 weeks

Q: How far in advance should I book? | A: I will book couples and weddings up to 2 years in advance. So, as soon as your date is 2 years out or less, let me know! Any other session, the sooner the better!

Q: How do you get to know a couple before the wedding? | A: DMs, Calls, Questionnaires, Coffee Dates - basically any and every way I can!
