Day-Of Event Coordination

Hi! My name is Erika and I'm here to make your special day fun, memorable, and stress-free. Over the years, I have found myself helping family and friends coordinate and execute weddings to perfection. While working in physician services at Stanford Health Care, I also took on the planning of holiday soirées and ran multiple weekend-long retreats for over 200 physicians and their families. Now, as a Day-Of Coordinator, I'm finally formalizing my hobby. I aim to make your life easier and your wedding even more joyful. Give the grunt work to me so you can dance the night away!

That's me in the floral dress!
