FULL PLANNING + DESIGN

You have zero time or energy to dedicate to planning your big day AND THAT'S OKAY. Let's discuss style and you can leave the rest to me. Rest assured this will be the wedding of your dreams and I will keep you in the loop on everything. I primarily focus on full plan-weddings and elopement weddings throughout the year so you have my fullest attention.

Did you know the average wedding takes more than 300 hours to plan? Who wants average!? You know what that means. Let me have those hours and you go on sleeping at night knowing everything is under control. All you'll need to do is show up! I'll guide you through the entire wedding planning process, handling all vendor communications and connecting you to some of the industry's most talented pros. I promise to be honest with you. If something isn't going to work, I'll tell you. If something is, I'll bend over backwards to make sure it's pulled off. From booking onward, I'm in constant communication with your vendors discussing all the details, aesthetic, design and overall flow of your big day. You and your loved ones can fully relax and enjoy every moment of your engagement knowing that I'm handling everything for you behind the scenes.

At the end of the day, I will serve as your buddy, your guide, your friend, your confidant until the day of the wedding... And hopefully after!
