Let's Talk About Love...

More importantly, your love. You know, that real, authentic, head-over-heals kind of affection that you just can't hide? Love like that deserves to be photographed! I have made it my mission to capture those deep, tender feelings and produce images through which you can truly feel the love.

Whether it be a wedding or elopement, an engagement, or just for fun, I am here to make the process of capturing your love effortless, enjoyable, and memorable.

First off...

HOURLY SERVICE

Pricing is based on the amount of hours you need. Most of my clients book between 6-8 hours. A minimum of 5 hours is required to book.

BOOKING

If you decide to book, there will be a contract we both sign, and a non-refundable retainer equaling 50% of the full package price. The remaining is due on the day of the event.

ADDITIONAL HOURS

You can add on additional hours at any time, and you will be charged for those hours either in your final payment or the day after your event.

Stephanie is the best around! There was one thing I 100% knew I needed for my wedding and it was her. She has such an eye for the perfect shot and is so kind-hearted you don't even feel like there is a camera pointed at you- I would seriously recommend her to everyone for any type of photography you need!
