

Weddings and Vow Renewals

Pre-Packaged or Standard Wedding - $450

If you are looking for a secular or non-religious wedding option, you have the opportunity to work with a celebrant and select from a number of pre-packaged ceremony format options. This includes:

- The meeting to plan the celebrant and ceremonial portions of your service.
- The walk-through and rehearsal of the ceremony itself with you and your selected participants
- Performing the ceremony on the day of your event
- Filing your paperwork with the county

Custom Weddings - Starting at $650

If you are looking for a secular or non-religious wedding option, you have the opportunity to work with a celebrant to create your own customized service. This includes:

- The meeting to plan the celebrant and ceremonial portions of your service.
- The walk-through and rehearsal of the ceremony itself with you and your selected participants
- Performing the ceremony on the day of your event
- Filing your paperwork with the county

Micro-Weddings or Elopements - $350

If you are looking for a secular or non-religious wedding option, you have the opportunity to work with a celebrant and select from a number of pre-packaged micro-wedding and elopement ceremony options. This includes:

- The meeting to plan the celebrant and ceremonial portions of your service.
- Performing the ceremony on the day of your event
- Filing your paperwork with the county

Vow Renewals - $225

If you are looking for a secular or non-religious vow renewal option to celebrate your years together, you have the opportunity to work with a celebrant to create your own customized ceremony. This includes:

- The meeting to plan the celebrant and ceremonial portions of your vow renewal.
- Performing the ceremony on the day of your event
- A certificate that celebrates your vow renewal

Memorials and Wakes

Memorial or Funeral Service - $300

Many people's last wishes include not having a religious ceremony -- preferring instead for a secular or more non-traditional service. As you honor your loved one, you can work with a celebrant to create a meaningful memorial aligned with their wishes. This includes:

- The meeting to discuss your loved ones wishes and to plan the service
- Performing the ceremonies at the funeral home and graveside
- Being present at the event venue prior, during, and after to provide support

Wakes - $150

Many people's last wishes include not having a religious ceremony -- preferring instead for a secular or more non-traditional service. As you honor your loved one, you can work with a celebrant to create a meaningful memorial aligned with their wishes. This includes:

- The meeting to discuss your loved ones wishes and to plan the wake
- Performing the ceremony and leading sharing
- Being present at the event venue prior and up to an hour during to provide support

Other Ceremonies

Births and Adoptions - $125

If you want to celebrate the birth or adoption of your new child in a non-religious or secular ceremony, you have the option to work with a celebrant to do so. This includes:

- The meeting to discuss and plan your ceremony
- Defining your commitment to parenthood
- Performing the ceremony on the day of your event

Renaming Ceremonies - $100

Selecting and changing to a new name is an incredibly powerful and validating event in the life of a trans or gender non-conforming person. As you share this event with the people you're closest to, you have the option to work with a celebrant to do so. This includes:

- The meeting to discuss and plan your ceremony
- Selecting which tradition to draw from or creating your own tradition
- Performing the ceremony on the day of your event

