ABOUT ME

Hi! I'm Christine the principle event planner and one of the founders of live.love.create events. A few friends and I started this company 10+ years ago. What we thought was just our passion project turned into a full-blown business over night. It seemed we were actually talented in what we were doing and our business came into fruition. Over the last decade, we worked as a trio to help execute 250+ beautiful events. However, just recently, my dear partners decided to concentrate on a different path and left the company for me to uphold. With their blessing I lead this company and continue to help many clients dream and plan out their perfect event!

I am proud to have come from an event background outside of just live.love.create events. Previously being an Event Director at several prominent venues in Los Angeles gives me the experience and knowledge to help my clients get the best out of their venues and vendors. I specialize in event planning in the greater Los Angeles area but welcome any event that is hosted in another city or country.

I would love to chat with you on your next big event!
