wedding & elopement PACKAGE GUIDE

MEET INDIA

Hey hey, friend! I'm an outgoing destination photographer serving couples for over 10 years. I love big earrings, pastries, comfy pants, getting the heck outdoors, and making a fool of myself on the dance floor. Though my home is in Ohio, my bags are always packed for an adventure.

I don't want to just be a photographer for one day, but your storyteller—showing up and serving you.

My mission is to tell honest stories and capture authentic joy. Through a wholistic client experience, I will guide you to feel like your most confident selves, creating a comfortable, freeing experience and crafting elevated, editorial images that will make you (and yourr grandkids) teary eyed.

I capture the intimate, wild, sacred, moments of your story. Fingers interlaced, lips meeting, warm light, slow tears. I am here to celebrate your authentic love, championing you all along the way.

Here's to capturing your joy.

—India Jade McCue

MY PHILOSOPHY

If you are looking for a stiff, strip mall photographer to cue up studio lights, keep all your hairs in one place and pose you all day long, we might not be the best fit—no shame, it's just true!!

What I am after is authenticity.

Real life moments that represent who you are as people, teammates, lovers. The little giggles in between the quiet, finger tips gently brushing back hair, synchronized breaths that make you melt into the sky above you. I might push you out of the box a bit but my goal is to keep you feeling like you-maybe a slow dance in the ocean, or a pop of champagne on a rooftop, or a hike up a mountainside.

Your love deserves to be captured in a way that is true to who you two are.

We'll do this through creating a worry-free, fun atmosphere by:

- professional contracts covering every what-if
- building your wedding day timeline together

- preparing a family shotlist (no uncle left behind!)
- playing your fave music during our session
- reminding you to go on a date night the week before your big day
- sharing previews of your photos ASAP so you can share the love • with the world around you

Oh, and I definitely will bust a move on the dance floor with you, vou can count on that.

I promise to bring my authentic, quirky, dad-joke-making self to the table if you promise to do the same.

So, are ready for your hair to get messy?—For your heart to beat faster?—To laugh so hard you just might lose yourself in the moment?

Then you are my person; and I can't wait to capture your joy.

I don't believe that the wedding day is the most important day of your life.

day kicks off the moment you say yes—leading into a million more moments where you live out that yes.

Your wedding day is a catalyst to your commitment. That said, it deserves to be captured with quality.

"There are two things that stick out to us about India. First and foremost her skill behind the camera is unquestionably phenomenal. She has a great eve for capturing beautiful moments. Secondly what makes her such a unique and truly excellent photographer is the way she makes you feel during your sessions.

You feel free, laughter fills the air, and you just enjoy time together while she is capturing each moment. She is hilarious, spunky, and just a joy to be around!"

"I've never seen us this way in our 3+ years together. What's shown in these images is how we feel about each other 98% of the time. We just aren't the kind of couple that takes pictures much, but we ARE the kind of couple that has so so so so so many beautiful moments together, usually with only a small slice showing up online. I've never felt like I've been able to reflect my real life on social media (probably because it's impossible), but where I think a lot of people struggle to feel like their real life matches the beauty displayed on their Instagram, I usually feel the opposite. My life is so rich, it's so vibrant and full. Images don't often capture how I feel about it, but these photographs that India took are equal parts beauty and truth. Thank you, India." /Grace + Nick

She knows exactly how to pose people, and will tell you exactly where to put your hands, ect. so your only job is to smile, laugh, relax and have fun! She will make you feel so comfortable and is the perfect photographer for couples! / MollyKate & Gabe

India was our photographer for our engagement and wedding pictures. I'm so happy we chose her! She is extremely kind, talented and flexible. She took into consideration a very long list of picture ideas for the wedding and came through with all of them. She was patient with a rowdy wedding party, and worked quickly but effectively to get the shots she needed. I was more than happy with how the pictures turned out—and she got them back to us fast! I would recommend this talented, sweet girl to everyone I know. / R & A
