

FULL-SERVICE INVESTMENT

The total investment is a combination of a planning & design fee, management fee, and production percentage. The final overall investment is based on the scope, size, location, and logistics of each unique event.

We find most often that the best fit for our full-service service package begins with an approximate investment per guest of $650. We arrive at this investment per guest by taking your total target investment for the event, divided by the anticipated attending guests.
