This venue was absolutely gorgeous. Such great facilities to make for the perfect day. So many beautiful backdrops to have stunning photos! Also has many facilities already in place to combat the fickle PNW weather (very rain friendly). The venue owner Tarrie is great and is always looking to improve her venue and add new features to help make your day the absolute best. She is so kind and helpful in the process. She is also very clear about expectations and responsibilities of the couple, which leaves no room for surprises. Could not recommend this venue more. Very reasonably priced for the features and facilities you get. You will not regret having your wedding here!
