Amanda Caputo
Founder + Principal Designer

We see it as a privilege to work on your one, very special day.

That's why our boutique-style team engages only a limited number of weddings & events per year.

We spend hundreds of hours conceptualizing, planning, and producing every last detail of your wedding weekend – all according to the rules for entertaining that we've refined and perfected over the past five years. The beauty of only taking on a handful of events is that we have time to form a more personal connection with you.
