ON YOUR WEDDING DAY:

On your wedding day we will meet you in the morning to photograph details; the dress, suit, shoes, rings, ties, flowers as well as you getting ready! Having one of my second photographers will ensure that both wedding parties are covered well.

Some couples incorporate a first look into their day, some would rather wait until the processional to see each other, that's up to you. A first look is an opportunity for you and your spouse to see each other before your ceremony which will allow us to shoot formals with your families before the ceremony, this also allows you to hit cocktail hour immediately after the ceremony! If you don't do a first look then formals will happen after the ceremony. Formals with family take approximately 20 minutes, with bridal party an extra 20 minutes or so. You will have us all day so you can spread out the days events and reserve more time for the things that matter to you the most. And of course formals of you two. Those can happen at anytime of the day, alone or together, after the ceremony, before the ceremony and after the formalities of the reception; cake cutting, first dances etc. My favorite part of the day is creating beautiful sunset images, I am sure you knew that already!

The reception! Generally at cocktail hour when I am photographing formals the second photographer will go to the ballroom to photograph details of the tables etc as well as guest arriving. We will photograph guest at the cocktail hour, the wedding parties being announced, first dances, cake cutting, speeches, you both greeting tables as well as other formalities you might have planned and of course people dancing and having a good time. It's your wedding day, we want to be there to cover it.

IF YOU BOOK US:

We will meet, call or FaceTime to discuss your wedding day. I'll provide you with a timeline, a formals list plus a wedding party / family tree which I will use to re-write the formals list with so we can get to know everyone by name, this also allows the formals to go smoothly and quickly!

ADDITIONAL FEES:

Dinner, please include our order with the caterer, if you have a buffet, we will join in.
Travel / Hotel might be required for weddings beyond 160 miles from the Finger Lakes region of NY, please inquire.
Most weddings in NYS don't require additional travel or hotel fees.
