Wedding Planning.....Redefined.

The process is simple. Once you book your package with us we secure all the vendors needed and get busy on planning all the details. We have spent years cultivating great relationships with the best vendors. We promise you will be well taken care of as a Run Away With Me client by all the vendors involved. Because we are the repeat client for our vendors you become an instant VIP. No need to research and hope for the best we have got you covered. Your Day of Coordinator will ask you for the fun details like floral preference and ceremony details while she takes care of all the contracts, timing and correspondence needed. We will provide a stress free solution to create the unique special day you as a couple desire and deserve.
