About

For most of my life, I have always been known as the planner – coordinating and planning celebrations for friends and family without missing an opportunity to bring the people I love together.

After many years of experience in the wedding industry, I understand the beauty and privilege it is to be your right hand woman who is in the know of all the details.

I am here to manage and coordinate every detail to ensure your vision is brought to life!

MISSION & VISION

Cultivating gatherings of community through collaboration & creativity

Our Goal

Your hard work of dreaming and planning will all be worth it when every detail is in our trusted hands.

BRIM is here to guide you through the planning process and curate the perfect details for you and your loved ones to enjoy on your special day!

ABOUT OUR PACKAGES

The Enthusiast

For the enthusiast, ready to fine tune the details and create a cohesive vision.

You've nailed down the key elements for your day and are looking for someone to take over where you left off.

BRIM steps in four months prior to your special event and curates custom design to pair with a streamline timeline and layout.

Your time to celebrate is here and we're ready to help you enjoy your day!
