SERVICES & PRICE GUIDE

HELLO FRIEND

I'm Makenna

a luxury wedding and elopement photographer in Denver, CO. I have been photographing weddings for 6 years and been loving every minute of it!

I have a more personalized approach, getting to know my clients and their vision. This helps couples to relax in front of the lens and show their true selves. I want to capture the genuine emotion of each day, which is why I tend to be more relaxed on the wedding day instead of always cutting in. I'm here to capture the moments, not make moments for you.

If you are looking for a photographer that captures the in between bits, the raw moments, the tears, the laughter, the candid, and the messy, uncensored beauty of love, then we would be a perfect match!
