MEET MADISEN

I am Madisen (Hinegardner) Timp— a wedding videographer, creator, storyteller based in the Midwest. I strive to capture more than just the big moments of people's lives, but the whole feeling, vibe, and authenticity that goes along with it.

Ever since I started creating wedding films, I knew there was something missing in the way our industry was telling wedding day stories— a natural, authentic way of capturing moments.

I fell in love with love seeing a moment unfold candidly in front of me and capturing it in an artistic way that told the story authentically while also creating art.

Since then, I have strived to let my couples live their day honestly.

When I am not filming, you can find me traveling, spending time with the best friends + family in the world, lovin on my husband, Gavin, and our golden retriever, Briggs, boating, scream-singing my heart out at concerts, and most likely drinking too much coffee. :')

THE EXPERIENCE |

The sum of myself is that I romanticize everything, every detail of my regular life, making my daily coffee, the way the light is streaming onto my living room floor, each detail matters and makes my own life beautiful. I believe in the love you share, the intimacy of a fleeting moment, and the power I have to bottle that up for you to hold forever.

To me, creating a film is much more about the entire experience. I want to capture moments that represent who you are and make something that is entirely unique. Those small moments and fleeting details of your own life— the way your hand slides down your partners back or even the smile your grandma gives you from across the room, each moment works hand-in-hand to tell your story. I want my videos to make you feel over and over again by creating a film that speaks to you, your passions, your energy, your raw emotions and help document your new favorite memories.

My goal is to create a space that is authentic and by the end of it all, I want to feel like we have been best friends for years. This way we can create a film that is a perfect reflection of the two of you and your day along with all of the emotions.

Through this, I'll tell your story. The true story of your love in whichever way you choose to celebrate.

"STORY" SESSIONS |

adding to your story | what makes the two of you, you

Whether it is going to the bar where you first met and grabbing a drink and strolling around town with your dog or jumping on a plane and adventuring at your favorite destination, these sessions add to your story and capture the real moments and life between the two of you and hold this time in your life exactly how it is.

With every new and exciting change that happens in my own life, I often think "Our life will never be exactly like this ever again." Although the upcoming things are exciting, special, and are so good to look forward to, I still think about the present and how someday we will reminisce on this time and try to remember how special it actually was and no amount of words will be able to truly recount what that time was like or capture the love and excitement we felt in these moments.

That is exactly why I created these sessions.

Spending this time together doing your favorite things is the perfect way to tell your story. We can use this to add to your wedding film and mix in real life moments with the details of your wedding day to better capture who you are together or create a separate film for the two of you to put on your wedding website, set the tone for your day, showcase the two of you, or even just to keep for the two of you and share these moments with your families over the years.

These sessions are so special to me and can truly be made into whatever and wherever the two of you feel most yourselves— even if it is simply hanging out at home, in a field, on a pond, or strolling down a city street.

I want to capture these moments for you, for your life, for your story.

FAQ

How do we book?

First, tell me asap so we can celebrate together!!!!
From there I will send you a price quote + contract to look over and sign.

To officially hold your date, I just need the signed contract returned to me and a deposit!

Can we setup a payment plan or when are they due?

Yes!! I offer flexible payments to make it work best for you. You can split up the payments however you'd like (no fees!!)

For example: many couples choose to pay a smaller amount each month until their date to get it taken care of.

The full amount is due two weeks of your wedding. If the payment is not complete, you will not receive your footage.
