MEET CHRISTINE

Quite possibly your new best friend!

Hi! I'm Christine Olive, the owner of Olive & Ivory Events. I'm happily married to my very best friend and I'm blessed to be mama to two of the cutest little girls in the world – if I do say so myself!

I'm a strong type A personality, a Scorpio & and an enneagram 3w2 – which might as well be code for a spitfire with a serious eye for detail and a love for helping & celebrating people.

Whether you're planning your wedding day or have another reason to celebrate, if you're looking for someone to journey through the planning process with you, count me in!
