Trials are NOT included in the above pricing. Trials are the same pricing as above and are done at my salon location in Andover, MA. If a trial is requested out of the salon and to the location of request, a round trip travel fee is added from my location to the requested location. I book plenty of time with you so I can make sure you love the way you look for your special day.

A $300.00 Non-Refundable Retainer and a minimum of 4 full services is required to book and hold your wedding date. (Example: Bride hair and makeup and bridesmaid hair and makeup.) The retainer does go toward your wedding day services. A contract will be prepared and would need to be reviewed and signed.

Large wedding parties may require a second or third artist depending on the number of services and time needed to complete all services. There is a $100.00 charge per extra artist needed or requested.

A travel fee is is charged based on the base location of your artist that traveling to the requested location where services are being provided and are determined during the consultation. The travel fee is round trip. Travel time that is over 2 + hours from that location, an overnight accommodation is required and must be covered and provided to the artists as well as valet/parking, and any ferry RT travel that would be required to arrive to your location for services. All the above will be discussed in full with the artist.

If you have any questions please let me know so I can answer all of them for you.

I cant wait to work with you and be apart of your special day!
