Let's talk about pricing.

We take our honesty and integrity seriously! We promise to always “keep it 100” with you - when it comes to rates, this means complete transparency and no hidden costs.

In life, we all know you get what you pay for - if you saw a G-wagon listed at a Kia price, you'd be super suspicious, right? Some folks want Kias, something simple to get them from point A to point B... and that's completely ok! There are plenty of Kias on the market. Other people want G-Wagons. The G-Wagon folks want to enjoy their journey in style, and crave the experience they'll have in a luxury vehicle. DTM clients count on us to provide a luxury experience that makes them feel like the superstars they are. We value your vision for your event and we put our all into exceeding your expectations.
