Our Team:

Oscar Beltran - Owner / DJ / MC

Since his early day's of growing up, Oscar has loved various types of music. It was not until Oscar started attending California State University of Long Beach in 2012 that he combined his love for music and started DJing to bring entertainment to those around him. This is when DJ O.G Live was born and ever since 2012 have done events for weddings, schools, and corporate events in the Greater Los Angeles, Downey and Orange County Area.

Favorite genre of music to spin is cumbia, merengue, salsa, banda, top 40, hip hop, pop, EDM, Country and other genres of music.

More info about me can be found here: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/oscargbeltran>

Rony 'DJ RonyG' Godoy - DJ / MC

DJ Rony G uses his many years of experience to create memorable moments. Whether it's a wedding, a club or just about any event you can think of, Rony G gets the people moving to the beat. Using his ability to read a room, events become experiences. Rony is a master of music selection, MCing and creating on the fly.

DJ Rony G can play music ranging from your favorite throwbacks to today's hits. His use of a flamingo in his logo represents the crowds inability to sit down when he's behind the decks.

Gus – MC

Gus is born and raised in Los Angeles by a Guatemalan father and Mexican mother. He is fluent in both english and spanish, and has been heavily influenced by both mexican and central american cultures. Family and tradition are a big part of who he is, which is why he is perfect for any weddings or quinceañeras that require someone with a high level of energy to entertain and connect with people of all ages and all walks of life.

Jordan is a Los Angeles based photographer, originally from San Diego, California. Since childhood he has always been an artist in one form or another, dabbling in music, poetry, and screenwriting which is what originally brought him to LA in 2011. In the process of filming a web series he cowrote, he found himself behind the camera more and more and began to shoot in his spare time for fun. He shot his first event for a friend's book release and she was so impressed with the photos that she paid him. And of course he was elated as most people often are when they get paid to do something they love and are passionate about.

Shortly after, Jordan assisted on his first wedding for a close friend and mentor and the rest is history. He still enjoys shooting a variety of events and lifestyle situations, but most pale in comparison for him when it comes to capturing that perfect moment in a couple's special day that will hang on their wall for the rest of their lives.

Gabby Ochoa – Video and Photo Grapher

Hello,

My name is Gabby! Photography has been a passion, hobby, and a natural talent that I have developed throughout the years.

While in high school, I was editor in chief of my high school's magazine. I also helped develop an event planning business giving me the opportunity to photograph my first wedding at 16 years old.

At 17, My work was displayed in the Long Beach Museum of Art (urban art show) and by the time I graduated high school I began working in family and children portraiture with Lifetouch Studios, eventually switching to Picture People Studios.

After a few years, I switched gears into commercial photography and started working within the headquarters of Affliction, assisting in photographing and editing images of professional athletes, models, and products.

Since then, I have decided to freelance and take on jobs that are of interest. I am highly qualified in portraiture, weddings, special events, commercial and action photography. I am currently working with media outlets such as BoxeoMundial.com and LA Times – Hoy Deportes; shooting professional sporting events in the West Coast such as:

The National Football League (NFL),

The Ultimate Fighter Championship (UFC),

World Boxing Association (WBA),

Invicta Fighting Championships, Combate Americas,

Major League Soccer

and Liga MX

As of December 2016 I joined Hoo Films as their Director of Operations. We specialize in wedding cinematography in southern california and destinations worldwide.

Packages will be shown first and at end there will be a table with pricing based off the day of the week your wedding falls under.

Looking for an MC for your special day?

If yes, you have come to the right place to bring your event to the next level.

Selecting a two man team allows DJ to exclusively program the music and operate all sound functions, while the MC is free to host your event and be more visible. This promotes a much more interactive experience with the audience.

The DJ can also do the role of MC but will remain behind DJ booth with minimal guest interaction.

Which is better a one or two man team? It depends on how you answer this question. Do you want conservative or high energy?

If you would like a traditional, conservative performance from the DJ, and you would like the idea of an MC that remains behind the booth with minimal guest interaction, then a one person presentation would be the best fit for you.

If you would like the MC to be out and involved with the guests, producing a high level of energy throughout the room, the two person interactive team would be the best choice.

What exactly does the MC do?

Coordinate with DJ

Provide an interactive experience in spanish/english or both by walking to middle of room to do introductions, announcements and other activities that you request

Coordinator for reception is an additional task to ensure your event goes smoothly in a timely manner

In prop new items on the fly added last minute

Packages that we offer are as follows:

1. MC Service Necessities (Spanish & English):
 - a. Conduct announcemnts and introductions for your event
 - b. Coordinate with DJ
2. MC Service Premium (Spanish & English):
 - a. Conduct announcemnts and introductions for your event
 - b. Coordinate with DJ
 - c. Interactive experience with guests, conduct games and other activities you wish.
