Brooke obtained her B.A. in Commercial Photography from the esteemed Brook's Institute of Photography California. She began her career as a fashion photographer in New York City where she trained with some of the best in the industry before deciding to relocate to the Grand Strand turning her focus to her true passion - capturing the spirit and love of a couples wedding day.

Now with over a decade of experience and close to 500 weddings in her portfolio, Brooke has emerged as one of the best among the Grand Strand wedding photographers. Known for her hands on approach, Brooke helps to keep the flow of the day running smooth to ensure the perfect photos are easily obtainable with minimal interruption to your big day.

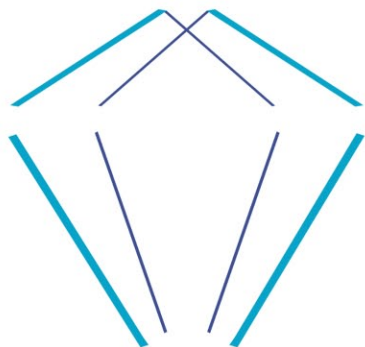

Capturing the story of a wedding isn't something Brooke takes lightly. She holds the only Certified Professional Photographer designation in the area and is constantly attending workshops and the latest trends in the industry to ensure her clients the best in technique and equipment. Brooke makes it her job to portray the emotion of your day, helping to shape an amazing experience that will be remembered for generations all while letting you relax and have fun. It's her creative, professional approach to weddings that you can trust to deliver the perfect images of your big day!
