

ORSON.MEDIA

Hi! I'm Orson, and I love my job.

A sign of a good wedding film is that it evokes those emotions you felt on that day whenever you watch it. The good news is, I specialize in that, so you are in the right place my friend. Thank you for being here.

Now that you are ready to move forward below you will find a small example of a brochure I send my future couples when they are serious about their investment in a wedding film. They do this by starting with the base and adding whatever they want from there. If you are ready for this, reach out to me so you can start creating your own unique wedding film experience!
