Delaney Yoha

PHOTOGRAPHY

hi. friends

meet delaney

Hi! My name is Delaney, I'm a wedding photographer based in Westerville, Ohio, although I'm always up for an adventure. I'm an animal lover, choco-holic, and can't stop watching true crime shows to save my life. I'm 20 years old, a college student earning my BFA in Photography, a dog and kitty mom, and a barista! I'm so glad you're here and I can't wait to learn all about your love story!

I love my life and what I do. Being able to meet so many amazing couples is one of the biggest joys of my business. People who are truly in love and want to spend the rest of their days committed to each other, is a beautiful thing and I am honored to capture even one of those glorious moments in your lifetime.

My goal is not to be your photographer for just one day – I am aiming to create magic with you, to be your storyteller and document your beautiful love story. Every single one of your love stories is unique and magical, to watch it grow, change, and evolve to become even more beautiful is one of the best gifts I have received due to my job.

When photographing, I aim for a documentary & cinematic style. Using light and shadows, space, angles, and composition to make the photo say more and mean more. I elevate images to pull deeper feelings out of people. I love allowing couples to be themselves and all natural, I want YOU to be YOU. Kiss, hug, dance in the rain, tickle each other, run around a field. I am a third party, simply observing and capturing your love story from a far. I aim to make my images feel like they are coming out of a movie—you're a love story that deserves to be remembered and cherished

my approach

How I capture you and your partner's love story is composed of four main elements. Authenticity, directing, romance, and cinematic flare. These create images with depth and meaning, while also staying true to who you both are. My goal is to make these photos come alive and feel like YOU.

authenticity

Being your true self is the most important thing for any photographs to actually tell your love story and feel like you.! Photographing your special, once-in-a-lifetime day, is not me just showing up with a camera, and “clicking a button.” We get to know each other, way before the wedding. I’m your friend and the most important thing to me is your comfortability. I want you to be able to be yourself, in front of me and the camera. Once you inquire, we will meet for coffee or brunch (on me) and get aquatinted with one another and I get to hear all about you and your fiancé! We’ll then talk about all the nitty and gritty things, like contracts, investment and payment, engagement sessions, and so much more.

One of the main elements of my images is cinematic photography. This style uses lighting, directing, and composition (how to frame the photo) to create images that feel like they came out of a movie. They help us remember events and moments more realistically than posing you would. I create depth, feeling, and passion that helps your real emotions from your big day shine through. There is always more than what meets the eye and I am constantly thinking about this when photographing you. This style of photography also emulates movie stills, but for me more specifically, I emulate romance movies and turn your story into one.

cinematic

romantic

Being romantic is in every love story right? Not always, romance is subjective and every person shows it differently. Do you love to hug, cuddle, and kiss your partner always? Do you love by being thoughtful and finding ways to spend quality time together? Whichever way you chose to love is the way I want to celebrate. Some might be shy than others, and that's okay! We all choose to love our partner for who they are, not what we want them to be. During our session (and beforehand) I'll ask all the questions about who you are, how you two met, and why you choose to love each other every single day. By knowing this information, it helps me craft our session just for you. I take my time learning how you and your significant other are romantic or lovey with one another to shine a beautiful light on your love!

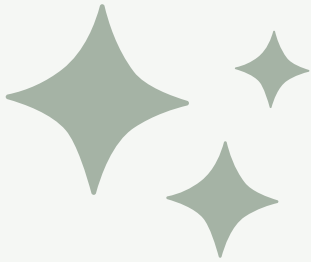

Whether you view them 2 days after our session, a few weeks after your wedding day, or 30 years from now they will make you feel like you were just there yesterday. I craft my images by editing them in a style reminiscent of film. It feels true to tonality and color, nostalgic, emotive, and homey. My images become timeless by always prioritizing documenting how you ACTUALLY feel. I don't pose my subjects, I'll guide you with prompts that allow you to move around, touch and feel one another, and some that are fun and silly. If you're looking for a photographer who's more posed that's just not me! No worries though! I want your day to match everything you want for it, but I can tell you if your someone who wants your day to be raw, natural, and timeless, I'm your girl!

alive

Human connection is so special in our lives. Each of our connections, both good and bad, shape us into the people we are today and who we're going to be. That's why it is so important to celebrate and accurately document how you feel about the person who is there for you everyday and inspires you to be better. I document all the moments small and big to truly capture you and your partner in the moment, by taking a step back and just becoming an observer.

Let's Get engaged!

What is an Engagement Session?

An Engagement session is a photo session to celebrate you and your future spouse! It comes after your proposal and is set up on a specific date, time, and location.

Why Do I need one?

Typically, couples use these images for their Save the Date cards, to be included in their wedding, or to be used on their wedding website!

Is this additional?

Most wedding package have a complimentary engagement session included! The Orchid is the only one that an engagement session is not included and you'll need to purchase it separately. The Poppy has a mini engagement session while the Peony, Freesia, and Calla Lilly have a full engagement session. To learn more about the different engagement sessions and pricing, read along!

With the busy bee's you are, the mini engagement session might be just for you! Enjoy a 30 minute engagement session with 2 outfit changes at any location you desire. You'll receive 30+ fully edited images delivered to you via Pixieset, an online, password protected client gallery.
