Haylie made our dream wedding come true

Working with Haylie was an absolute lifesaver for us. We decided to plan our wedding in the same summer we closed on our first home and quickly realized we'd bitten off more than we could chew. Haylie jumped right in and took over just as we needed. She guided us through every step of the way- helping us solidify our theme, find the right vendors, stick to timelines, negotiate prices, all with such a calming demeanor and incredible professionalism. When we ran into hiccups in planning she addressed the issue immediately and had multiple solutions ready before I had time to stress about it. She is creative, intuitive, punctual, dependable and motivated. She truly enjoys what she does and it shows in the end creation. Our wedding was magical, everything we could have dreamed of. With both of our indecisive natures and the rushed time frame we had, this day would not have come to life without her.

- Three in-person consultations
- Assessment of the couple's needs with targeted support
- Budget development and management for the wedding
- Selection, booking, and coordination of various vendors, including contract oversight
- Guidance on design and decor, encompassing themes, color schemes, linens, chairs, and lighting
- Development of a comprehensive wedding day timeline, covering logistics such as transportation and setup
- Livestream capabilities for the ceremony

Every detail was executed with precision and elegance creating a memorable and magical day

From the moment I entered the venue, I was captivated by the exquisite décor. The floral arrangements and table settings were a testament to the team's detailed planning and creative flair. It was evident that they poured their hearts into every element of the design. The event's seamless flow was a testament to Haylie's expertise. Heirloom Event Company went above and beyond to create a wedding that exceeded all expectations. It was a day filled with joy and cherished memories.
