THE

PERFECT

CHOICE

I'm a local and travel wedding videographer and I LOVE what I do. I am such a people person. Growing up my family always called me the "social butterfly" of the family. I think having that personality and love for people really helps when doing this job. When I can be around people AND create... I am the happiest.

Being the people person I am, I absolutely love getting to know my clients and learning about their love story. Doing this enables me to create the perfect film for my clients. Your wedding day only happens once, and I strive to capture every moment in the most beautiful way.

I always like to say, "I create wedding films, not videos!" Creating a wedding film is not just about filming the events of the day, but about capturing the story of the bride and groom.
