Hey, I'm Jen!

I began coordinating weddings twenty years ago at a church in my hometown of Susanville, CA. When I moved away, I couldn't shake my love for weddings.

I opened a catering company in Chico, CA and over the five years I ran it, I frequently had to sneak back into the kitchen to wipe away a tear or two when my clients' weddings were extra sweet (which was just about always).

After spending eight years in the SF Bay Area and planning weddings in beautiful Napa Valley, I still love weddings just as much as ever.

Since 2020 brought so many changes for all of us, we shifted our focus to destinations and now serve Napa Valley, the San Francisco Bay Area, Austin, the greater San Antonio area, and destinations everywhere.

Piper & Sloan is about the art of celebrating love. I can't wait to meet you, support you in the details of planning your big day, and help you celebrate your new life with your favorite person. Schedule your introductory consult call, here.
