BITS 'N BOBS

1. All edited lengths are approximate, will vary slightly per project, and are open to the vendor's discretion.
2. For events located >60 miles outside the Salisbury, MD area, travel expenses will apply. Contact the vendor for a quote.
3. Payment can be submitted via mailed check, Venmo (friends & family), GooglePay (friends & family), Paypal (friends & family), or Zelle, but clients are welcome to ask if other apps/payment apps can be accepted.
4. The vendor typically brings an assistant with her to the event. Please provide 2 hot meals for the video team!
5. All music used in the final edited film(s) needs to be licensed in order to be used responsibly/legally. Gretta Greenwald LLC is responsible for purchasing music licenses and all music choices are left to vendor discretion, however clients are encouraged to share their favorite musicians/genres with the vendor so that all final edited music fits the couple and is something they'll love.
6. The vendor will typically deliver the edited films 8-12 weeks after the event but cannot be held responsible for later delivery times.
7. Upon booking this vendor, the client acknowledges and agrees to the vendor's full sharing and advertising rights of the footage and edited films shot during and created from the event.
8. In the event of a reschedule required due to extenuating circumstances:
 - If the client books an available reschedule date within the same year as their original date: the vendor will charge no additional fees, vendor holds onto the 50% booking deposit, the remaining 50% due upon delivery of the edited film(s).
 - If the client books an available reschedule date in a year outside their original date's year: the vendor will charge the difference in their package price from the current year to the next year (usually about $200-$300), vendor holds onto the 50% booking deposit, the remaining 50% due upon delivery of the edited film(s).
 - If no reschedule dates are mutually available, the vendor will return half of the booking deposit (25% of total cost).
 - If the booking needs to be canceled due to the vendor's personal needs: the full deposit will be returned and the client will owe nothing.
