What Our Couples Say

"The staff at the Perry was excellent! They were always quick to respond to our questions, willing to accommodate our requests, and truly worked with us to make our wedding day special. They also were incredibly accommodating and helpful while navigating a reschedule due to covid; they communicated any policy changes with us quickly, and worked with us to find solutions that work for us and the hotel. We didn't use a wedding planner, and I never felt like I needed one with the Perry. We highly recommend Stafford's Perry Hotel!" Kelsey & Jay

"We had the best wedding day at the Perry Hotel! From the amazing staff, to the delicious food, to the stunning views from the Rose Room, this venue cannot be beat. Through all the ups and downs of wedding planning during this time, the staff was outstanding at communication and making sure we had the safest celebration. We heard nothing but good comments from all our guests." Kathleen and Matt

"It's not surprising that two weeks after the wedding we're still hearing raving reviews from our guests about their experience, and how impressed they were with the Stafford's team. There is no shortage of stories our guests have told us. A few family members couldn't attend at the last minute, one a close uncle due to a biking accident the day before - the waiter at his table was genuinely concerned about him and boxed up his meal for other relatives to take home to him that night." Rachel & Jake

Stafford's Perry Hotel

Perched high on a bluff overlooking Lake Michigan, the Perry Hotel stands as a proud symbol of the early 1900s when northern Michigan tourism was in its infancy. The Perry's unique event atmosphere provides a lively alternative to sprawling, remote resorts common to northern Michigan.
