

19 East, a meeting space and event hall located in Chicago's South Loop neighborhood boasts an urban, contemporary flair and hosts a rich Chicago history that dates as far back as the 1800's when the building belonged to the Chicago Illuminating Company, a predecessor of ComEd. This flexible event space is known for its premiere corporate and social events, galas, fundraisers, weddings, product launches and film shoots.

19 East, located at 19 East 21st Street is situated near South Michigan Avenue, the Cultural Mile and just six blocks from McCormick Place. The building was recently acquired by Food For Thought, a premiere catering and events company who's been helping clients create unforgettable moments for over 30 years. 19 East proudly continues the tradition of hosting some of the finest events in the city.
