FAQS

When will my painting be complete and in my home?

In most cases, the painting is fully completed the night of the wedding. However, it is usually not fully dry yet and I will take it home with me to ensure it fully dries and will be sealed. You are able to pick it up or have it dropped off within 3 weeks of the wedding. In this time, I am also able to make any edits or add loved ones that may have been missed the night of.

When will you arrive and leave?

I will arrive 2 hours before the start of your reception. In that time it allows me to fully setup and get a head start on the background of your amazing venue. So that way I am able to focus on you and your wonderful guests when you arrive!

Do you travel outside of Louisiana?

Yes, I love to travel!!! I charge an additional fee to travel anywhere farther than 25 miles outside of New Orleans. My travel fees are outlined on the page above.

Can I request for specific people to be in my painting?

Yes, about 30 days before the wedding I will reach out to ask for a specific list of people you would like to make sure are in the painting. I try to limit this list to family members, and specific wedding party members, about 10-15 people. If someone important is missed though the night of the painting they can be added in, no problem at all!
