MEET THE TEAM

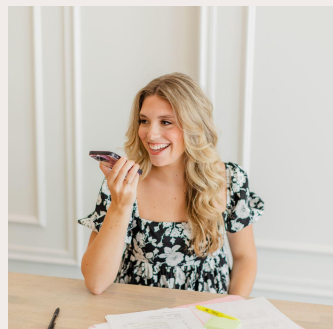

Brittanie Pate | Owner, Lead Planner & Creative Director

Brittanie has worked in the hospitality industry for almost a decade and has been fortunate enough to see many sides of the Wedding and Event world. She started out serving drinks at a prestigious country club, then made her way up as their Catering and Sales Manager. She wanted to explore more options in the Hospitality Industry and began working as a Venue Manager at one of Charlotte's top wedding venues. Working closely with couples, families, vendors and understanding more about wedding planning and all the logistics that go into a couples wedding day brought a realization that owning her own wedding planning business was the next step to take.

For the past two years, Brittanie has made her mark in the Eastern Carolina area, and is not only a top wedding planner, but also the owner of Wilmington, NC's newest wedding venue, The Elia.
