The Way To A Healthy Marriage Begins With Dance.!

Looking for an idea for your first dance.... from simple to extensive choreography...
Once you have settled on a song (or need help in choosing) reach out to me and let's get you started on this wonderful journey of dance

MY MISSION

What sets me apart from all other dance instructors is that I can adapt to each student's personality which allows the relationship of movement and body to blend seamlessly.

Operating out of New York, NY, Dance Well NY is a dance lesson service available to work with you before your wedding day. Get dance floor-ready and feel good while doing it with this expert company.

Owner Stephanie Shapiro Hakun has worked with over 1,800 wedding couples since 2008 and is well-versed in various dance styles and techniques. She adapts moves to suit the individual, ensuring they feel comfortable when jiving to their first dance on their special day. Regardless of your song and dance goals for your once-in-a-lifetime event, she will ensure your confidence and success.

Dance Well NY offers an introductory lesson package to help get you started for your big day. Stephanie talks you through various dance style options during the course and can help you pick your song also. Once a game plan is set up and put into motion you will be ready and able when the special day arrives. Custom packages are available and are designed to suit your dance level, and schedule, leaving you nothing to worry about once you hit the dance floor. Accommodation can be made for last-minute requests.
