ABOUT

Nicole Rosenbaum

Nicole graduated in the Spring of 2019 with a degree in Art Education from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Nicole takes great time and care in creating a personalized approach to every commission collaboration; customizing each aspect of the painting to perfectly complement the vision of the client.

She has been featured in several art galleries and art publications across the country. Nicole was a featured artist on CNN/HLN and created a live painting on "Morning Express with Robin Meade." She recently was the youngest artist to take place in the largest public art project, The Bucky on Parade, in America during 2018; out of the 64 artists involved, Nicole was the 2nd highest selling artist with a total of $49,000 donated to charity. Nicole's public artwork also expands internationally. In 2018 Nicole painted a mural for a rural community in Kenya.

LIVE WEDDING PAINTING

LIVE WEDDING PAINTING

Live painting is a new trend that adds a unique element to your wedding! Nicole's live wedding paintings engage and entertain your guests while capturing all of the special details of your big day! The painting can be a gift for your in-laws, a treasured heirloom, or even a surprise for the bride and groom!

DETAILS

If possible, Nicole will need to arrive at the venue 1 hour prior to the start of the ceremony/reception to set up and begin painting the background.

If the painting is started at the ceremony, Nicole can complete the painting at the reception and leave you with a finished painting by the end of the night!

The time it takes to complete a painting is dependent on size and subject matter. Average estimate is 4 hours.
