frequently asked questions

Are our images edited? How many can we expect to receive?

Your images will be carefully edited for color, exposure, and composition. While there is no limit on the number of images you will receive, an 8-hour wedding typically yields around 800 images, and approximately 70+ images are delivered after a 60 min. portrait session.

Are rights included with the digital files?

Yes! Each wedding and/or session includes a print release, allowing you to print your images, share them online, create books, canvases, etc.!

How long will it take you to get our images back to us?

Wedding images are delivered approximately 6 weeks after the wedding date, while portrait sessions will be delivered within 10 days.
