

Hi there!

I'M STOKED.

I LOVE weddings. Like, I really, really, really love weddings. No matter how offbeat or eccentric, your wedding should reflect your personality and values. I help couples create weddings and events that mirror their backgrounds, styles, and interests. I love to see couples break traditions and create new ones. Whether it's alternative fashion or design, a non-traditional ceremony, the blending of cultures, or a unique celebration, Stardust Weddings & Events is ready to guide you through the making of a life experience.
