

Pastor David Sweet, wedding officiant

My base price for a typical ceremony is $220.

I add extra charge for time on the road from my home. (I'm in North Hays County—almost extreme south Austin) especially if there is traffic to negotiate. Driving through Austin to go north can sometimes mean two or three hours on the road for the round trip!

So for example a wedding in the Georgetown area or Fredericksburg my total charge (that includes ceremony and travel) is usually about $320-$340. A little less for New Braunfels or Bastrop. ($300-$320). For weddings in mid-town Austin my charge is usually around $250-280 depending on the location and traffic.

A wedding within 10 miles of me I usually charge just $220. I charge less if the ceremony is super-simple. (i.e. no wedding party, etc.)
