BRETT GARAMELLA

I love telling stories. From studying journalism at UNC Chapel Hill to working as a photojournalist and portrait photographer, telling a story in a creative way is at the core of my art. As a photographer, I believe there is a collaboration between the subject and myself in order to create truth and beauty in each love story.

Daryl and Wes

"Brett is an amazing talent and we're so glad we chose him for our engagement shoot and wedding day. We can't imagine another photographer who would have given us the same type of passion and commitment as Brett. He was so helpful during the entire planning process and pleasure to work with.

If you're looking for a photographer for any occasion, we highly recommend Brett."

Amy and Ed

"Brett went above and beyond. From our first time meeting to discuss our wedding, we felt comfortable and confident that Brett was the right photographer for us. We wanted spontaneous, journalistic style photographs, and Brett did just that - capturing those emotional and unique moments throughout our wedding that we will always look at with a smile or laugh.

Brett is our photographer - from our wedding to our first baby to birthday celebrations, he is the one we always go to for capturing these memorable occasions."

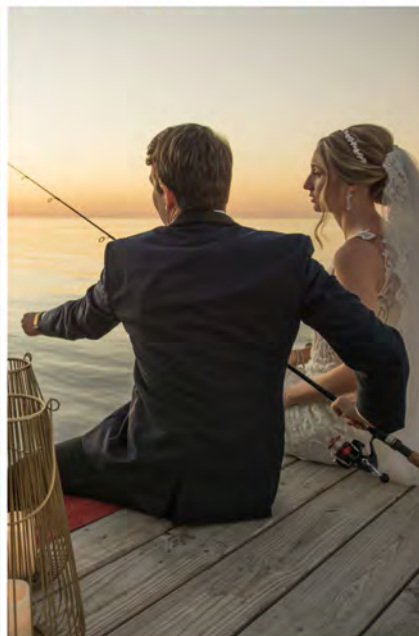

Emily and Pete

"We are thrilled about our wedding photographs - the way they were taken and the style in which Brett shoots. Our wedding had a fun and relaxed vibe in a beautiful location. Brett captured the scenery, the emotion, and the candid shots at just the right moments without us knowing it! We highly recommend Brett - he is a great person, and a great photographer. If you are thinking about a wedding photographer, look no further, Brett is the the right one for you."

Jenn and Luis

"We both had been waiting a long time for this day to come, and there was a lot of emotion throughout the wedding. Thankfully, we had Brett to photograph all of our smiles, laughs, tears, and love. We are very close to our family members and Brett went out of his way to make sure to get these photographs we wanted. His passion for photography was obvious and he was patient with everyone he photographed. This was a day we really, really treasured, and we are so thankful that we had Brett as our photographer."

THANK YOU!
