

Weddings with Rustic Elegance

Sydalyn Hill is a new, exclusive, family run farm and venue that hosts a limited number of weddings a year between May and September. We are perched on a sunny hilltop off Highway 9 surrounded by the redwoods of Henry Cowell State Park. This hidden treasure, with an expansive view of the San Lorenzo Valley, provides a magical backdrop of rustic elegance for your special day, creating lasting memories for you and your guests. There are 20 acres with orchards, gardens, trails, and a large open meadow to explore. Guests can even take a walk back in time, stepping inside the original cabin built in 1908.
