Meet Amanda Paige

Amanda Friedman is originally from Long Island, NY and is now very proud to call Chicago her home. An experienced event planner, she has designed and orchestrated many events ranging from the more intimate to larger-scale for non-profit organizations and higher education institutions such as the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago and Harvard Business School.

Her philosophy is there no such thing as a cookie-cutter event! Each event and planning situation is unique and she will be there to help marry your unique style into your special day.

Amanda lives in Lincoln Park, Chicago with her husband, Adam, her daughter Shay, and their dog, Kirk. If you asked any of her friends about her, they would tell you she is organized, creative, and above all, always wants to bring people together.

It was the most magical day of her life; she looks to evoke that same feeling for all her clients.

Arielle is devoted to ensuring that each client has a personalized experience when planning their event. She believes it is not just about the day itself but the whole journey leading up to it.

She participates in solution driven communication and a positive outlook on life. She uses her honored skills in organization and attention to detail, along with her fast-paced and bubbly personality to always get the job done. Being involved in lasting memories that are created, and seeing a vision come to life is why she's deeply passionate about event planning.

Adeena Fox

In this experience, Mimi discovered her passion for playing a behind-the-scenes role in delivering experiences and life long memories for clients and attendees. Her attention to detail, ability to remain organized and flexible in changing circumstances, and ease in communicating and connecting with others has made event planning a natural and fulfilling fit. Mimi lives in the Western suburbs with her husband, Alex, and their dog, Denny.

Vanessa Herkert has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Advertising and Public relations from Loyola University of Chicago. As an added bonus, she is an expert at balloon arches and is ordained by the Universal Life Church, and can officiate weddings. Vanessa brings her attention to detail, passion, creativity, and love for weddings and all celebrations to ensure your day is as special and unique as you!

Before I got engaged, I knew I wanted Amanda to be my wedding planner. When we finally met, I knew we had made the right choice. I am Type A and love to plan but knew I did not have the time to plan a wedding without a planner. Amanda was there for me throughout the entire wedding process.

MARISSA

As someone who is a self proclaimed particular bride, Amanda gave me the space for my honesty and encouraged fun and personality at every turn.
