WEDDINGS

M E E T C H R I S T I N A

In my 10+ years as a wedding photographer I've learned that great images don't happen by accident, they're carefully crafted. As the years have passed I've come to learn how to slow down behind the camera and to first and foremost become an observer of places and people before pressing the shutter to capture the fleeting moments in between.

I find myself constantly fascinated and inspired by nature, and am always curious about my surroundings, almost to a fault. It's important to me not only to capture people in their best moments but just as importantly to capture a feeling, which is what takes us back to a given moment in time.

In my 12 years as a Vermonter I learned to fully embrace a slower life, the bucolic sights and the unbeatable summers that are never too hot, never too cold and always just right. My current home base is in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains near Denver, Colorado and I travel near and far to capture couples in love. I share my life and business with my husband Josh and our three cats: Liam, Bean and Smokey.

Our work has been featured in Martha Stewart Weddings, Brides, Once Wed, Style Me Pretty, Grey Likes Weddings, Magnolia Rouge, Snippet & Ink, Hochzeitsguide among others.

OUR APPROACH & COLLECTIONS

After over a decade of documenting weddings near and far, we've curated a select number of collections that feature a range of services and products we believe are essential to capture a wedding celebration and all of its moments.

Each collections begins with Christina as your primary photographer and/or Josh as your primary cinematographer, and include all travel fees.

Our approach on wedding days varies by couple but generally, my role is first to observe, document and art direct when necessary. In order to create beautiful images there often is a bit of planning and anticipation to ensure we are utilizing the best locations, timing and light throughout the day. My hope is that we can work together before the wedding day and become aligned in our vision and expectations.

My favorite wedding images happen when couples let go of control, place their complete trust in us, allow flexibility in the unexpected and allow themselves to be completely present on their wedding day.

After we choose the very best images and meticulously edit them for color, exposure and contrast, we will deliver them all to you digitally in a private online gallery.
