

CONGRATS!

You found your forever love -- NOW WHAT?

Thanks so much for reaching out to me about your wedding day! Big cheers to you for putting a ring on it!!
Your wedding day can't be redone and the moments shared between you and your loved ones are so important.
This day may be the only day you get to have your whole family together in one room.
I vow to photograph your wedding day with intentionality and passion.

Your love story is unique to you.
It deserves to be captured intentionally.

Every part of your wedding day was chosen purposefully--the colors. the florals. the landscape. your dress. his shoes.
This day has been carefully crafted and planned for months, which is why I am very intentional in the time I create to capture every little detail that goes on. Post wedding day, I spend hours and hours pouring my heart and soul into creating your gallery in a timeless way that authentically tells your story in a way you will be able to relive over and over.

My documentary style is true-toned with a hint of warmth.
Expect to receive hundreds and hundreds of artistically edited color and black and white images.

$400

Second Photographer FULL DAY

As much as I'd love to clone myself and be in two spots at once, it's a lot easier to have two photographers tackling angles and venues at the same time. This service is particularly helpful when the bride and groom are not doing a first look and/or are getting ready at separate venues.

$400

Second Photographer HALF DAY

Don't need a second photographer for an entire day, but still need me to be in two places at once during some parts of the day? This add-on accommodates this.

Having a second photographer is helpful to get multiple angles during the ceremony, and can assist with groomsmen getting ready photos while I tackle the bride's side if you are not doing a first look.

FAQ's

Some frequently asked questions

What is required to reserve our wedding date?

I require an 800 dollar deposit to secure your day. This amount counts toward the final cost of your package of choice.

I'm not even sure where to start with a timeline. Do you assist in this process?

Absolutely! I will be holding your hand through the entire process. After securing your date, I'll send you a questionnaire to capture all the nitty gritty details. We will talk multiple times leading up to your wedding day to ensure no detail goes untouched.

There are some vendors I don't have. Do you have recommendations?

YES! Upon booking with me, you will receive my Bride Guide, which is packed with vendor recommendations as well as wedding planning tips.

How soon do we receive our gallery?

A few days after the wedding, I will send you some highlight photos from the wedding day for you to post all over social media and share with family. 8 weeks from your big day, you can grab a tissue and get cozy on the couch because your full gallery with hundreds and hundreds of professional photos will be waiting for you.
