General Information

- Chairs will be set up by The Margaux in your specified ceremony area. It is the client's responsibility to transition chairs from the ceremony to the reception. Tables will be inside the facility ready for your coordinator to set up in your desired layout. After your event, you may leave the tables and chairs as they are and our staff will handle returning them to storage.
- Smoking, sparklers or any type of fire or device that may cause a spark on the premises are not allowed under any circumstances. This includes candles, cigarettes, lighters, vapes, and the like.
- Client is responsible for their after event clean-up.
- We require all vendors that serve on our property to be insured and operating in a lawful manner. This includes a business license OR a certificate to operate in their practice/specialty. Vendors and the Venue are separate entities and must be treated as such.
- Event day insurance is a requirement
- The renter must hire a DAY OF coordinator from our list of approved coordinators. DAY OF organization is a must and a requirement. Wedding planners are not required.
- Any sound/music after 11pm must be moved indoors
