Hello there!

My name is LaTia Pellerin and I am the Founder of BeautifulConnections Events. We specialize in micro weddings, adventure weddings, adventure elopements, and premarital and wedding coaching.

BeautifulConnections was founded in 2020 and we strive to help create beautiful, unique, once-in-a-lifetime events while eliminating the majority of your stress and overwhelm through the whole planning.

Our coaching services are designed to help strengthen, nurture, and sustain your relationship after the big day. We focus on your relationship health, not just the details of your wedding or elopement.

My Entrepreneurial Journey

My entrepreneurial journey started years ago when I first envisioned my future business. One that is designed to help create happier, healthier, more sustainable relationships and marriages. I have worked towards that goal ever since the idea came to me.

In 2020, I became an iPEC Certified Professional Coach (CPC) and an Energy Leadership Index Master Practitioner (ELI-MP). I have been coaching for three years now and continue to help couples create relationships filled with love, laughter, and healthy communication.

In 2022, I had the joy of getting married to my best friend and constant supporter. Through our journey, I discovered how much I enjoyed planning weddings.

In 2023, I added micro wedding and elopement planning services to my business to help ease stress, overwhelm, and frustration while creating dream weddings and elopements for couples.

"I am a heart-centered planner and coach who helps couples create and execute their dream wedding day while nurturing and valuing their relationship every step of the way."

Why Work with Me

As a Wedding Planner & Coach, I am dedicated to the success and happiness of not only your wedding day but also your relationship. I believe in a heart-centered experience that strives to help you find joy, growth, and life-long happiness with your partner.

So many couples get overwhelmed, frustrated, and stressed during the wedding planning phase, that they lose sight of each other and their love story. They stop dating during this busy, and sometimes tumultuous, time of their lives, and they stop playing together and enjoying the time they do spend together.

By working with me, we will prioritize the success of your relationship while prioritizing the success of your dream wedding or elopement. Your relationship is just as important to me as a beautiful, happy, and successful wedding day or elopement.
