Karen Donatelli's Bakery & Café is celebrating 7 years of business! Chef Karen Donatelli starting at the age of 15 in a hometown bakery, began a apprenticeship training program at the age of 18 at the award-winning five star Breakers Hotel in Palm Beach. Baking and Pastry is a lifelong passion and culinary art that is shared with her husband and Chef, Vincent Donatelli.

The pastries and cakes are classic European culinary art that is sure to excite the palate, light lunches along with coffee and tea beverages can be enjoyed at this quaint European styled café located here in the mountains of Western North Carolina.
