Prints for use as favors, gift cards etc., are also available once the original is complete. Since printing prices and shipping costs are hard to predict, please ask for a quote.

The Process: You provide the reference photos and describe what you want in the drawing including any details put in or taken out. I will share progress with you as the work is created and once complete you will have a chance to see the final and accept prior to framing and shipping. Payment via PayPal is expected in full prior to shipping. PayPal will hold the funds until you confirm receipt of your artwork.

Guarantee: You are purchasing an original artwork created by me, Brian Magnani, by hand. No digital tools are used in this process. Your artwork will come complete with a signed certificate of authenticity. Portraits will be created in the order in which commissions were received.
