

Why Choose Pink Diamond Events

There are so many wedding planners to choose from, but it's important to select the best avenue that works for you...so why not work alongside a professional planner that will make your experience enjoyable, relaxing, and most of all fun!

“When I first started planning my wedding, I spent hours doing research and figuring out all of the things that needed to be done. I soon realized that planning a wedding was eating into too much of our time and I was going to go crazy! When we hired Pink Diamond Events and they got to work, we had wished we had hired them sooner! They got everything organized for us very quickly. Managed all of the vendors for us and saved us a lot of time. If only I had them from the start, my life would not have felt so overwhelming.

They are organized, professional and I would consider them an expert. The day was absolutely perfect and we owe it all to them! We would highly recommend using Pink Diamond Events.”- Jen (Bride)

How we work with you

We offer a local approach to help you find the best vendors to make your complex logistics appear seamless and cohesive during multi or single day weddings and events. Because you, like our clients, live busy lives, our expertise and efficient wedding planning process, allows you to feel less overwhelmed and have piece of mind while planning your wedding. On your wedding day, we handle every detail so that you can actually enjoy being the guest of honor for one of the most memorable moments of your life.

The benefits of our services are

- Our veteran status ensures that your wedding will not be a “guinea pig” for us to get experience on how to plan a wedding. We have proven systems in place that have taken years (not months) to develop.
- We give you a planning system, which means you’ll stop spinning your wheels on what you need to do next and stop worrying on how to get started.
- We give you vendor recommendations, so you can stop spending endless amount of time online researching vendors without knowing who is reliable.
- We manage the entire wedding day, which means you can actually enjoy the day and soak up this once in a lifetime event with friends and family.

Our Packages

Month of Coordination

Our Month -of/Day-Of package is comprised of several weeks of planning with you before your occasion. We will manage and coordinate your day's events, while executing a perfectly charming and seamless day. You, your family, and guests will get to relax, and enjoy the day as it unfolds!

Full Service Planning & Design Program

Our Full Service Planning program is great for busy couples who would like to have your wedding planned and managed by a professional who has the foresight and experience to help you avoid common mishaps and pitfalls. We will collaborate with you to plan every element from start to end with our passion, creativity, experience and guided by your personality and overall vision. All you need to do is make the final decisions and get involved in the fun stuff. Sound too good to be true? It's possible!

Wedding Weekend Full Planing

Our weekend-planning clients graciously invest in full planning of multi-day events focused on their guest's experience and creating lasting memories. Our planning knowledge and experience accounts for each and every detail, which we'll coordinate, manage, and implement, leaving you to provide as much or as little guidance as you'd like. We'll oversee creative partners, create comprehensive timelines, carefully manage your budget, and much more.

