THE PROMISE

Whether you are headed to the chapel or eloping in a national park, I'm here to serve you and give you wedding portraits capturing your happiest day. As your wedding photographer, I vow to also be your hype-girl, encourager, dress bustle-er, safety-pinner, and anything else you need me to be; I am here for you!

Because wedding days go by so fast, I want to give you portraits that authentically capture your day so that you can re-live it over and over throughout the years. I do this by carefully taking notice of each moment; whether it is your mom and best friend zipping you into your dress, the best man's toast, or the soft glances shared between you and your love at the dinner table; these intimate moments are what tell the story of the beginning of your lives together.

A photograph of a bride and groom kissing in a wedding arch. The arch is formed by the raised hands of guests, many holding white and blue floral bouquets. The bride is wearing a white lace wedding dress and a veil, and the groom is in a black tuxedo. The background is a bright, hazy sky.

THE PROCESS

We'll start with a free consultation, either on the phone or over a cup of coffee. This is where we'll get to know each other and where I can ask about the important details like which of you makes the best tacos. I'll answer any questions you may have, and based on the plans and vision you have for your day, we will build a customized wedding package to best suite your needs.

When you're ready to book your wedding with me, I will email you a booking proposal. This is where you will sign the contracts, print releases, and pay the retainer fee to lock in your date.

From there, I will stay in touch with regular check-in emails to schedule your engagements or bridals, send you styling guides and planning resources, and work with you to create a wedding day timeline to ensure we capture all of the special people and moments that make up your wedding day.

Wedding galleries will be delivered to your e-mail inbox within 6 to 8 weeks. You can download and share your images through your gallery, as well as purchase high-quality lustre prints.

THE PACKAGE

Your wedding is as unique as you, and I believe your portraits should be, as well. This is why each of my wedding packages are fully customizable. Whether you are planning an adventure elopement or a traditional walk down the aisle, I want to give you portraits that authentically tell the story of your unique love.

Wedding packages start at $2,600. Clients can customize their experience through a selection of engagement sessions, bridal portraits, boudoir sessions, or albums.

Elopements start at $1,600 and are also fully customizable with a selection of engagements, bridal portraits, and boudoirs. Additional charges may apply based on location and travel accommodations.

We'll talk through these options in your consultation call, so book one today!
