The Hilltop has been in the same family for over 77 years. Over the years it has provided respite to its residents and guests through it's beautiful 360 degree views of the Monterrey Bay, Santa Cruz Mountains and peaceful valleys. The flexibility, variety, and character you'll experience at the Hilltop will ensure that your special day will represent you and provide incredible memories for you and your loved ones.

Lets make your day happen!

The day before you are welcome to come to the site and set up and have your rehearsal anytime between 9am - 5pm. The bridal suite will be available as well. You will have a private studio with a kitchenette, private bathroom, and front garden area. This space is all yours from 9am on Friday until noon on Sunday.

For your ceremony you will have exclusivity of the site for the day. We will not stack multiple events for the weekend. We have wedding arches if you need them and have a list of preferred vendors you are welcome to choose from for any of your day of needs.

You can chose between multiple sites we have available for your ceremony, cocktail, and reception space. You can bring your own alcohol with no corking fees. Cocktail tables, 6' table, and outdoor string lighting is included.

Bon fire pits in the garden with seating will be available to you and your guests. We will have luxury bathrooms onsite for your guests and trash removal after the event. Parking for 50 cars including vendors will be available as well as overnight parking access. A parking attendant will be provided on your wedding day.

Not included is the set up and break down of the event(s), rentals such as tables, linens, chairs, dance floor, and decor. Catering is not included in the venue booking. A licensed and insured bartender may be booked outside of the venue. All vendors must deliver proof of liability insurance before event date.
