FAQ

Do I need to pay a deposit, if so, when?

I take a $500 booking fee to secure your wedding date in my calendar. Once this is paid your date is reserved and I don't book any other work on that day. This also gives you the flexibility to add coverage later, once you've finalized your wedding plans. The balance of your package is due a month prior to your wedding date.

How many hours should we book for our wedding?

I am happy to suggest which collection will best fit your day with some coordination.

As an indication, four hours could be enough if you're having a small wedding in the late afternoon and eight hours might not be enough if you're planning a big wedding with a ceremony in a separate location from the reception. In my experience six hours of coverage is enough for most weddings, to capture the moments before, during, and after the ceremony, family photos, bridal party portraits, and the reception and dance floor (e.g. 3:30 pm – 9:30 pm). If you're wanting to capture bride and groom preparation you will need to allow at least two hours of coverage prior to the wedding start time as time is also needed for travel between locations.

Why should I book a highlight video with you?

When you book a highlight video with me along with your photo package, I take the lead in posing, guiding, and artistic vision while my video assistant films the footage of your day. I edit the final footage into a beautiful highlight video which is color graded to match your photos.

On another note, booking a video with me can save you money, and ensure the photo/video coordination goes smoothly.

How will you capture our day?

I use two different methods to document your wedding day. One being photojournalism which is artfully capturing candid. I like to take an editorial spin on this and document the day in a way that you would see in a magazine spread. I also know you put a lot of time and money into the details of your day and will make sure to document even the tiniest detail in a beautiful way. The second method I use is loosely posed portraiture. I want you to look back at your wedding photos and be able to feel the emotion of the day and I bring that out of you by gently guiding you into natural poses. I'll step up and be a strong voice when needed (like during family photos) and then I'll back off and be a fly on the wall when needed as well!

Do you accept payments in installments?

Aside from your refundable deposit, payments may be made any way you like up until 1 week before your wedding day. I understand that paying for a wedding is a huge investment so I hope to have a flexible system so you can make the finances work the way you need to!

How long is the turnaround time for our wedding photos?

The Standard turnaround time for delivery of your photos is 90 days after the event date – however, depending on the time of year it may be sooner. Most of my wedding packages include “sneak peeks” so you at least get a few to share with family and friends right away!

Do you provide original unedited RAW images?

The images in your gallery will be edited to improve lighting, contrast, sharpness, and color – all of which is a standard process for digital photographers. Therefore, I do not provide unedited RAW images.
