How do I book?

Because Andrea books up to a year in advance, she requires a signed contract with a 50% non-refundable deposit of your total services. All dates remain unreserved with Andrea until your contract & retainer have been received.

What is considered Peak Season?

In Texas, peak wedding season is divided into two seasons: Spring & Fall. The Spring months include March, April, & May while the Fall months include September, October, & November. If your wedding date falls in one of these months, the minimum applies to your total balance. If your wedding date falls outside of these months, a 6 service minimum applies including bridal services.

Do you offer discounts?

Although Andrea doesn't offer discounts based on volume, services are promoted through booking hair and makeup as a package. Andrea also offers bonus items with each appointment such as a custom set of individual false lashes, neck bronzing, chest glow, veil/accessory placement and hair extensions/pieces/hair padding if needed.

What if I don't know how many people need services?

All appointment times, artists, & products are booked based on the information within your contract. After your contract has been signed, services may only be added at the Andrea's discretion, if time allows. Any decrease in services will still render the same original balance outlined in the proposal.

Do you offer partial makeup applications?

In order to ensure the cohesion, quality, and longevity of your makeup, Andrea does not offer "partial makeup".

Why are trials required?

Trial runs are extremely important for all of our brides-to-be. It allows the client to work closely with Andrea to create a personalized, unique aesthetic, prior to the big day. Andrea always recommends utilizing your trial for an engagement session, bridal portraits, rehearsal dinner, etc. Since weddings are usually booked Friday-Sunday, most trial runs are held Monday-Thursday.

How should I show up to my appointment?

We ask that you come to your appointment with a clean face, no makeup on, and 100% dry hair. If booked for a hairstyle, we prefer that you wash and dry your hair the night before.

How long will my appointment last?

Although every appointment is different, each service is allotted 45 mins at the time of booking. With bridal appointments lasting 1 hour 15 minutes per service.

How is gratuity handled?

Gratuity is not included in your contract. It is appreciated but not expected.
