

Who We Are

MICHELLE BORRERO My name is Michelle Borrero and I'm certified planner with more than 22 years' hospitality experience. As long as I can remember, my passion has been planning. As a child, I created detailed itineraries for family vacations, reunions and birthday parties. As I grew older, friends and neighbors began requesting my assistance with their own events. After planning my own wedding, I knew I had a special gift that could benefit couples who might be overwhelmed by the wedding planning process. Initially, special occasion event planning was just a hobby, but then I decided to turn the thing I loved doing most in the world into a full-time career and Precious Moments Events was born. Assisting couples with their weddings is something that I find extremely exciting and rewarding, and it brings me indescribable joy.

I bring a high level of energy and enthusiasm to every event that I have the privilege of orchestrating. I love helping people make their dreams come true and it would be my greatest pleasure to help you make your dream event a reality.

NELSON BORRERO

I am Nelson Borrero, a designer and craftsman with more than 20 years' experience. I have a deep appreciation for quality and craftsmanship, and a passion for building wedding and event furniture. I love assisting with floorplans and event layout, ensuring all fits perfectly together for your special day. Let me make your vision come alive. If you can dream it, I can build it!

Let us help make your dream become a reality.

Michelle was super helpful with helping me plan and organize my wedding. I last minute, due to COVID, changed my wedding plans 12 weeks before our date. I live out of state and she was able to help me with everything from flowers, music, beach permit and all of the other things needed for a beach wedding that I would not have thought of. Her and her husband did an amazing job picking the perfect location on Sand Key Beach and setting up in the heat! The entire experience was so helpful and my now husband and I could not have had the most perfect day ever without their amazing help!!!

Michelle was literally the best person my husband and I could have entrusted to be our day-of coordinator for our wedding. She made my day turn out exactly how I pictured and dreamed it would be. She was very easy to communicate with and more than willing to meet up or chat on the phone with any questions or ideas I had. Overall, I would absolutely hire her again for the amazing work she did for us on our wedding day. I would recommend her services to anyone in a heartbeat!
